Potatoes and sweet potatoes are very high in oxalate and may have been eaten more often in winter, perhaps.

This is significant because researchers estimated that 40 HIV infections would have occurred if ART and PrEP had not been offered to couples.